RCCAO Congratulates Newly Elected Municipal Officials

Vaughan, Ont. – The Residential and Civil Construction Alliance of Ontario (RCCAO) congratulates the Mayors and Councillors elected yesterday in municipal elections across Ontario. RCCAO is encouraged by the consistent message sent by voters in this year’s provincial and municipal elections for the need to invest in our communities and continue building critical infrastructure to meet the needs of a growing province.

“RCCAO will work with newly elected and re-elected municipal officials to offer concrete solutions to the challenges of building in Ontario today, and ensure critical infrastructure is there for the people of Ontario,” said Nadia Todorova, Executive Director of RCCAO.

RCCAO will continue to advocate for proper investment in state-of-good-repair funding and focussed investment in new critical infrastructure that addresses the housing crisis, alleviates gridlock, and adds needed capacity to keep Ontarians and goods moving between communities.

RCCAO Executive Director Nadia Todorova is available for interviews.
